Clothing Requirements for the event: Male & Female

- ☑ Casual Wear - For ALL contestants - male & female.
Plain blue denim jeans & Plain White Crew Neck T-Shirt
(Old fashioned blue jeans. As plain as possible please without fading etc)
(Plain White T-shirt. The Official Pageants T-shirt can be worn for Judging)
- ☑ Evening Wear - Please take note of evening wear for the various age groups.
AGE APPROPRIATE EVENING WEAR PLEASE!
Ball gowns are not allowed in any of the age groups!
Ages 4-12 Short knee length dresses. No long dresses will be allowed.
Marks will be deducted for dresses not meeting this requirement)
Ages 13 + over Evening dresses - May be long or short. (No trains / fish tails)
Males - All Ages - Tuxedo's / Dress Suits
- ☑ Cultural outfit - The Interview will be conducted in the cultural outfit that best represents the heritage of your forefathers or country of origin of your family. This outfit can be made to exact specifications of the countries National Costume or can be designed in a manner that you think best reflects your heritage. You may also combine two or more countries in this outfit, but must retain a dominant country that will be the focus of your introduction.
- ☑ Introduction - During the 60 second introduction, prior to the interview, each contestant should say the following: - Name, Age, Hobbies, the Country that they are representing, and describe the meaning of the cultural outfit they are wearing. By this we mean that if the costume has a specific colour or design representing something that best represents the country, the contestant should explain this to the judges. If you are in doubt here, please call our offices so we can assist you. Your Interview will be based on your introduction.
- ☑ Souvenir Gifts - Each contestant is required to bring 50 small souvenir gifts to be exchanged with other contestants. These gifts should represent the country you are representing and should not be expensive. Should you wish to supply a further 15 gifts for the judges and 10 gifts for the chaperones these are optional but would be appreciated. Awards will be given to best gift.
